Watkins Meegan Accounting Firm Named Presenting Sponsor of Inaugural

Corporate Farm Olympics

The Fairfax County Park Foundation, in partnership with the Fairfax County Park Authority and the Friends of Frying Pan Park, is pleased to announce that Watkins, Meegan, Drury & Company L.L.C. (Watkins Meegan) will be the presenting sponsor of the inaugural Corporate Farm Olympics to be held Thursday, October 19, 2006 at Frying Pan Farm Park in Herndon, VA.

The Corporate Farm Olympics is a farm-themed event where about one dozen teams from Fairfax area companies will be competing against each other in a series of fun and challenging team-building events. The competition will provide an opportunity for employees to focus on teamwork, solve problems, and strengthen working relationships outside of the office while increasing their sense of ownership in the community and Frying Pan Farm Park. Companies who participate in the event will be helping to preserve open spaces, strengthen park programs, and create more hiking and biking trails through their support of the Fairfax County Park Foundation.

Watkins Meegan is a metropolitan Washington, D.C. based certified public accounting firm with over 150 accounting and professional staff. The firm provides traditional accounting, auditing, and tax services as well as business and financial advisory services, internal auditing, outsourcing, litigation support and business valuations, information technology, healthcare, and other related services. The firm is based in Bethesda, MD and has three regional locations including Tysons Corner, VA.

There is still room for more teams in the Corporate Farm Olympics. For more information on entering a team in the competition or other sponsorship opportunities, please call Foundation Executive Director Bob Brennan at (703) 324-8581.
